Dearest Mother & Daddy:

Today we had a Battalionparade, and we marched with thee music. It was really nice.

It turned out cold here today, and I mean cold.

Had a nice time in Washington this weekend, and got back at 11 PM last night.

We willprobably be pulling out of here this week, but where we will go or when we will go is unknown to me or the to the rest of the men here.

Don't have much time to write as I used to, because I am on the field all day till 6 PM, and when I come in I am so tired I go right to bed. So you understand? We have a 25 mile hike Thursday, and I sure do hate to think of it. Right?

That is about all for now, so be good, and write soon.

Love,

Harold
